

STATEMENT REGARDING FRAUD ALLEGATIONS

RAW Recruitment is aware of the allegations reported on by the Age newspaper on Thursday 27 August 2020.

We are treating the issues raised in this article with the utmost seriousness and fully cooperating with Victoria Police and relevant authorities.

I can confirm that relevant employees involved in the allegations have been stood down pending further investigation.

RAW Recruitment has engaged auditors to conduct a proactive and thorough review of its contracts nation-wide to confirm their integrity. We will also maintain regular and open contact with government, authorities, contractors, clients and staff.

We note that the allegations contained in the Age newspaper story of last week pertain to RAW recruitment only. Other entities associated with the RAW group of companies are not impacted by these allegations.

RAW remains committed to continuing to provide first class training and employment services for our clients and strive for greater Aboriginal workforce participation.

RAW will continue to provide updates on this matter through the media section of our website.

ALLAN JONES
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
RAW Recruitment and Services
M: 0414 210 526
E: allan@rawrecruitment.com.au

31 August 2020